JAN SPEK ROZEN

SHOWCASES WORLDWIDE

JAN SPEK ROZEN is one of the oldest rose companies in the world. A family business with a great and reliable name in the National and International rose world since it was founded (in 1890). We are also proud to announce that our ‘Royal Purveyor’ title is renewed. His Majesty King Willem-Alexander decided that Jan Spek Rozen may continue to use this esteemed title until 2040.

Premium

These roses are characterised by their exceptional quality, shape and lovely shades. Most of the varieties are grown in Latin America, where the favourable cultivation climate ensures that these roses are deserving of the “premium” quality label. Further to this, the latest creations in this class will also be mentioned.

Spray

These days, it has become virtually inconceivable for a sales outlet to not carry this type of rose. The numerous flowers growing on a single branch are typical to these roses. Spray roses look lovely in a vase, and the pastel varieties are in high demand for bouquets, particularly for weddings.
